

HIDDEN FIGURES

It was a warm but very drenched day. A round 10 o'clock, I came walking in the grey circular office, walking past rows of pairs of grey desks. I can feel hundreds of eyes looking at me, and I see Kathrine once again is no-where to be seen. Across the room I see that Kathrine isn't at the gigantic chalk board, I go and look in the big glass dome and she isn't in there. 40 minutes go by, Kathrine comes storming in and I say "Where have you been?" saying it calmly, "To the bathroom sir," slowly raising her voice, "For 40 minutes a day!", "What do you do in there?" I questioned Kathrine and she replied with, "There is no bathroom in this building." I was very confused and I said, "What do you mean there is no bathroom in this building," "I was still confused, now Kathrine is raising her voice, "There is no bathroom in this building or any of the west campus, did you know that Mr. Harris I have to run 1/2 mile to get to the bathroom, and simple string of pearls well I can't afford pearls colored or nothing and I work like a dog day and night living of a coffee maker that none of you wants touch... Sorry ig I have to go to the toilet a few times a day." shouting then calming down.
