

Good Morning

Greetings, fellow earth inhabitants. I trust that you all slept well and have woken up refreshed and ready to work.

So lets get started on another day of amazing home learning.

Mr Foster

Break time!

Remember to have a snack and a drink.

Why not have a nice piece of fruit for a snack.

Ask your parents who these men are and what long running quiz show they appeared on

English

- ▶ WALT: Use actions to describe emotions
- ▶ Too often we find ourselves just writing how a character is feeling.
 - ▶ Bob was feeling sad.
- ▶ This is a little dull. Today I want to think about describing emotions but not actually using the word.
 - ▶ It was like a grey cloud had descended in Bob's heart and mind.
 - ▶ Bob started to feel his eyes fill up.
 - ▶ It was all too much, Bob sank to his knees and could not cope with the bad news.
- ▶ These sentences are good examples of a technique called Show Not Tell. I have used actions and even a simile to describe how Bob was feeling.

English

- ▶ Task
- ▶ Now it is your turn. Think of a list of 10 emotions and try to write a sentence that describes how the character is feeling through their actions. For example
- ▶ Happy
- ▶ Angry
- ▶ Scared
- ▶ Love
- ▶ Hate
- ▶ Confused

Lunchtime

- ▶ Congratulations you have earned your lunch today
- ▶ Why not treat yourself to a slice of cake made with love and care.

Reading Time

- ▶ Lesson overview: To make comparisons between two songs
- ▶ Read a book! Reading expands the mind and increases ones knowledge of the world we inhabit. Choose a good book, find a comfy place and enjoy.

History

Sir Francis Drake; hero or villain?

In some peoples eyes Sir Francis Drake was a hero - saviour of England when it was under attack from the Spanish Armada.

To other people he was a slave trader and a pirate!

Your task is to research Sir Francis Drake and to come up with a list of arguments for him being a hero and for him being a villain.

Today - I would like you to put your points into a piece of writing that is balanced
