Registration of Pupils Policy

Introduction

The Education Act 1996 requires parents or guardians to ensure their children receive full time education. It is self evident that if pupils who should attend school fail to do so, their learning and progress are likely to be restricted.

An entry must be made in the attendance register at the beginning of the morning session and at the beginning of the afternoon session for all children of compulsory school age who are on the school roll.

The school is required to distinguish between authorised and unauthorised absence. Only the school may authorise absence, not the parents. Reasons for authorised absence may include receiving medical treatment, days of religious observance, family bereavement, moving house and in some cases, family holidays.

Aims

This policy provides a framework and guidance for staff and parents to ensure that pupils attend school regularly and punctually, so that they can take advantage of the educational opportunities available.

This policy should be read in conjunction with the Attendance Policy. The HomeSchool Agreement is also pertinent.

- The EWO is provided with attendance registers and supported in following up long term absences
- Pupils absent for long periods because of ill health receive appropriate learning support
- Attendance registers are retained in school for three years, in case of legal proceedings or emergency

All teachers are expected to:

The governing body ensures that:

- Information concerning pupil absence is included in the prospectus and annual report to parents
The LA:
- Publishes an attendance policy that is reflected in the school's registration policy
- Follows up cases of long term absence or erratic absence by individual pupils
OFSTED Inspectors are required to:

Arrangements for monitoring and evaluation

The Headteacher, on a termly basis, complies with the requirements of attendance returns, evaluates the data and decides what if any action is required. Any actions are reported to the governors.
